

Medicina Journal

Copyright Transfer Agreement

Must be signed and returned to the Editorial Office before the manuscript can be considered for publication.

The transfer of copyright from author(s) to publisher must be clearly stated in writing to enable the publisher to assure maximum dissemination of the author's work in printed and electronic form, in all languages, and to administer subsidiary rights agreements with third parties for the full period of copyright and all renewals, extensions, revisions and revivals. Therefore, the following agreement, executed and signed by the author (s), is required with each manuscript submission.

The Article entitled _____ is herewith submitted for publication in the Medicina Journal.

In signing this Agreement Author s) hereby warrant that:

1. This Article is an original work, has not been published before, and it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere in its final form either in printed or electronic form;
2. Author (s) have obtained written permission for the use in the Article (in all media including print and electronic form) material from any copyrighted source(s), and Author(s) agree to supply such written permission(s) to Medicina Journal upon request;
3. This Article contains no violation of any existing copyright or other third party right or contains no matter that is obscene, indecent, libelous, or otherwise contrary to law;
4. Any formula or dosage given is accurate and will not if properly followed injure any person;
5. Author(s) will indemnify and keep indemnified the Medicina Journal's Editors and Publishers against all claims and expenses (including legal costs and expenses) arising from any breach of this warranty and the other warranties in this Agreement;
6. All co-authors have read and agreed the terms of this Agreement.

When the article is accepted for publication, Author(s), hereby agree to transfer to Medicina Journal all rights, including those pertaining to electronic forms and transmissions, under existing copyright laws, except for the following, which the author(s) specifically retain(s):

1. Author(s) may share print or electronic copies of the Article with colleagues;
2. Author(s) may use all or part of the Article and abstract, without revision or modification, in personal compilations or other publications of their own work;
3. Author(s) may use the Article within your employer's institution or company for educational or research purposes, including use in course packs.

Authors agree that copies made under these circumstances will continue to carry the copyright notice that appeared in the original published work.

Authors authorize Medicina Journal to act on their behalf to defend the copyright in the Article if anyone should infringe it, although there is no obligation on Medicina Journal to act in this way.
